CHRISTINA NILSSON sailed on Friday for New York.

HON. THOMAS I. COGER, of Nicholasville, Ky., died Saturday afternoon.

"Blood-food" is the suggestive name often given Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because of its blood-enriching qualities.

The frost predicted by the signal service throughout the entire north-west on Friday or Saturday did not occur.

JOSEPH NORVELL, deputy Register of the Land Office, under Sheldon, has filed a suit for $5,000 against Cecil, as damage for the latter's failure to engage him as a clerk in the office.

The Alaska, of the Guion Line, has made the fastest time on record for a Western trip—six days, twenty-two hours and forty-three minutes from Queens-town to Sandy Hook.

The rate war in passenger traffic between Chicago and Louisville is likely to be extended to include Indianapolis, Cincinnati and the principal cities on the Pan-handle lines in Ohio.

The Auditor of Ohio has prepared a table showing the receipts under the Scott law from every county in the State to have been $1,846,517 35. Of this amount Hamilton County paid $418,510 06.

The new comet discovered by Prof. Brooks, at Phelps, N. Y., is identified as the long-expected comet of 1812. It is rapidly approaching the earth and sun, and will be visible to the naked eye before Christmas.

The two Kablers who are charged with the murder of young Patterson, in Bracken county last August, are supposed to be hiding in Adams county, Ohio. Governor Knott has offered a reward of $500 for their arrest.

The court of Appeals has reversed the sentence of the Carter Circuit Court in the case of G. W. S. Henderson, who was convicted and sentenced to be hanged on the 20th of November for the murder of Robert Clark. Henderson is now confined in the Fayette county jail.

OPERATORS in the Chicago speculative markets are growing over the Signal Service Bulletin predicting a severe frost, which has not appeared. They claim to have lost but little by the false prophecy but they might have gone in heavy on the strength of it. The price of corn this week, good judges say, is likely to fluctuate with the weather.

THE Chatham (N. Y.) Courier says: "If a boy has a patch of ground for potatoes or some other crop which he may sell and have the proceeds of, he knows how he came by the money and it will not be expended foolishly as when it was given him outright. The great thing is to teach the boys the value of a dollar, and this can best be done by letting them earn it on their own account."

THE SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Leading Editorials After the Manner of the Bulgeville Beacon.

Chicago News.

Monday—The genial Mr. John Cutts got out the first number of his paper, the Bulge, to-day. He has just fitted up an elegant office in the rear room of Mr. Codwholopper's basement. John is a whole-souled fellow and a rising young journalist. We wish him success. There is room enough for two papers in Bulgeville. We believe in live and let live. John, here is our best.

Tuesday—The editor of the Bulge says his circulation is greater than that of any paper in the county. Mr. Cutts is mistaken. We beg to inform him that the Beacon has more subscribers here in the village than any other paper has in the whole township.

Wednesday—The Bulge man claims that his sheet is the best advertising medium in the county. The Bulge man is too fresh. We'll bet him $5—and we can put up the money too—that the Beacon has more regular subscribers in Bulgeville than he has in the whole county. Now, Mr. Bulge, put up or shut up.

Thursday—The so-called editor of the little Toot-horn, published around in the alley, says his circulation has doubled in two days. Well, it only took one subscriber to do that. The Toot-horn man ought to know that the folks here can see through his thin claims.

Friday—That pied hand-bill that comes sneaking out of a hole in the ground in the alley claims to do better job work than anybody in Blossom county. The editor of the venal 7x9 has more gall than a sage hen. Somebody ought to tell him the fool-killer is coming, just to see him dodge in his underground den in the alley.

Saturday—When the unconscionable liar who runs the hell-box around in the back alley says he has done more job work this week than the Beacon has done in a month, he knows he lies like a horse-thief. Talk is cheap, but if he thinks he can bluff us out he's made a big mistake. The Beacon is a fearless and independent journal, and says what it means. We heard before Jack Cutts came to Bulgeville that he was a scoundrel who didn't know the truth from a hole in the ground. Now we believe it. There, you long-fingered idiot, if you want any more truck with us, sail in.

FASHIONS FOR AUTUMN.

Fall Suits for Children—Stylish Mantles—Rich Trimmings.

New York Evening Post.

Charlotte Corday cloaks of golden fawn colored cashmere, lined with deep cardinal, are the latest of stylish and elegant traveling wraps.

Cashmere pattern bands are quite in favor and are likely to be more so as the autumn advances. Most of these imported Italian trimmings, with dress fabrics en suite, are of sufficiently high price to add considerable value to the possession of a toilet of this kind. These rich oriental trimmings are employed only on dark dresses or those of neutral tint.

Autumn mantles of a dressy style are made either in the visite shape, with sash drapery in the back, or in modified Hubbard shape, these lined with deep Venetian red and trimmed with satin and lace, the favorite material of the wrap being a fine quality of vicogne. These shapes seem likely to continue in fashion through the autumn, while the stylish French redingote is preferable for fabrics of a heavier description. The black satin pelisse, lined with bright colored surah and trimmed with real Spanish lace, shell pleatings and flots of black satin ribbon, or with broad bands of jet-beaded applique works, forms an elegant transition from the light summer wrap to the heavy winter cloak.

Desirable materials suitable for children's autumn suits are mostly fine woolen stuffs, such as tweed, camel's hair cloth in firmer qualities than ever, and in soft colored plaids and stripes. There are also stylish cloths in fancy basket texture and chevrons in tiny pin checks or thread stripes and also linens in chevron designs, and heather mixtures which are particularly commendable for school dresses. All the fabrics can be used by themselves in the formation of a very dress, but generally there are added a waistcoat, sash, cuffs and collar of some contrasting color and material, the age this autumn being for the many new shades of red. Where scarlet, red or crimson trimming of this kind are employed, the novel little red toque, in exact imitation of the German husbandman's cap, is added.

An Albany firm have utilized tin scraps. They make wrought dovetails for stove legs, and utilize from six to eight tons of scraps every month for this purpose. The articles made are small pieces of tin of peculiar shape, which are used by stove makers to make a perfect dovetail on stove bottoms.

The Philadelphia Times draws this picture of New York life: "On a $15,000 granite monument over the grave of his wife, Daniel Murphy, one of the richest men in the Fourth ward of New York, put the following inscription: 'Built to outlast the British monarchy.' Less than a twelvemonth afterward, though in his seventieth year, infirm, and nearly blind, he took a second helpmeet, who will probably not get a tomb, for scarcely was the honeymoon over before she began the daily exercise of throwing chinaware at his head and dragging him round the room by the hair. Mr. Murphy tottered to the police court and had her sent to Blackwell's Island for six months."

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882. "I have used AYER'S PILLS in numerous instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

Mexico, Texas, June 17, 1882. The REV. FRANCIS R. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
